

I just can't wait

Ian Campbell

1. I took this job when I left school and I thought it might be fun.
I signed the papers binding me till I was _____.

Chorus: I just can't wait to collect my cards, I just can't wait to go...
For I can't get along with the people here, and my work it bores _____.

2. I learnt a trade for what it's worth and the time has gone so slow,
But soon my birthday's coming up and I'll be free _____.
4. Now I think I'll wait till the wedding's over before I can break the tie,
For the girlfriend tells me we must save if a house we hope _____.
5. Now I'll wait till the baby's born before I can be free,
But I understand a pregnant wife must have _____.
6. Now I think I'll wait till the kid leaves school before I break away,
For growing kids eat money and I need the steady _____.
7. I think I'll wait till the house is mine before I say goodbye,
For the interest rates keep rising and the car it bleeds me _____.
8. Now I think I'll wait till retiring age before I risk a break,
For the pension scheme insures the wife and it's mainly for _____.
9. Thank you for the gold watch, sir, the silver collection too,
But are you sure I have to go for I won't know _____ last chorus: I just can't bear to collect my cards, I just can't bear _____...

For I'm sure I'll miss the people here, and my life it bores me so.