

Humpty Dumpty

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall,
Humpty Dumpty had a great fall;
All the King's horses and all the King's men
Couldn't put Humpty together again.

Raise your hands above your head,
Clap them one, two, three;
Rest them now upon your hips,
Slowly bend your knees.
Up again and stand erect,
Put your right foot out;
Shake your fingers, nod your head,
And twist yourself about.

Do the actions suggested by the words.

clap them one, two, three; rest them now up - on your hips, slow - ly bend your knees. Up a-gain and stand e-rect, put your right foot out; shake your fingers, nod your head, and twist your-self a - bout.

Ten little gentlemen standing in a row.
Bow, little gentlemen, bow down low;
Walk, little gentlemen, right across the floor,
And don't forget, gentlemen, to please close the door.

*Use fingers to represent the gentlemen.
Give a big clap for closing the door.*

Heads and shoulders, knees and toes,
Knees and toes, knees and toes,
Heads and shoulders, knees and toes,
We all turn round together.

Touch each part of the body as it is mentioned.

Heads and shoul - ders, knees and toes,
knees and toes, knees and toes, heads and shoul - ders,
knees and toes, we all turn round to - geth - er.

Five little sparrows sitting in a row;
 One said, 'Cheep, cheep, I must go!',
 One little, two little,
 Three little, four little,
 Five little sparrows — Oh.

Four little sparrows sitting in a row, etc.

Three little sparrows sitting in a row, etc.

Two little sparrows sitting in a row, etc.

One little sparrow left in the row
 Said, 'Oh, dearie me what shall I do?'
 One little, two little,
 Three little, four little . . .
 'Cheep! I'll fly away too.'

*Use the fingers of one hand to indicate the number of sparrows.
 Repeat the song using the other hand.
 Use the tune for 'Ten little nigger boys sitting in a row'.*

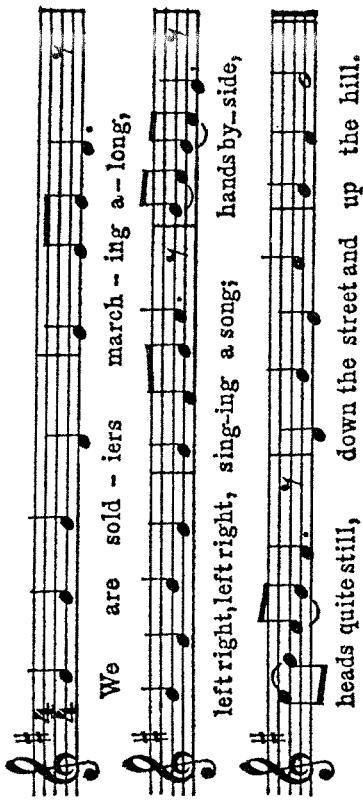

Five little mice came out to play,
 Gathering crumbs up on their way;
 Out came a pussy-cat
 Sleek and black —
 Four little mice went scampering back.

Four little mice came out to play, etc.

Use the fingers on one hand for the mice and the other hand for the cat.

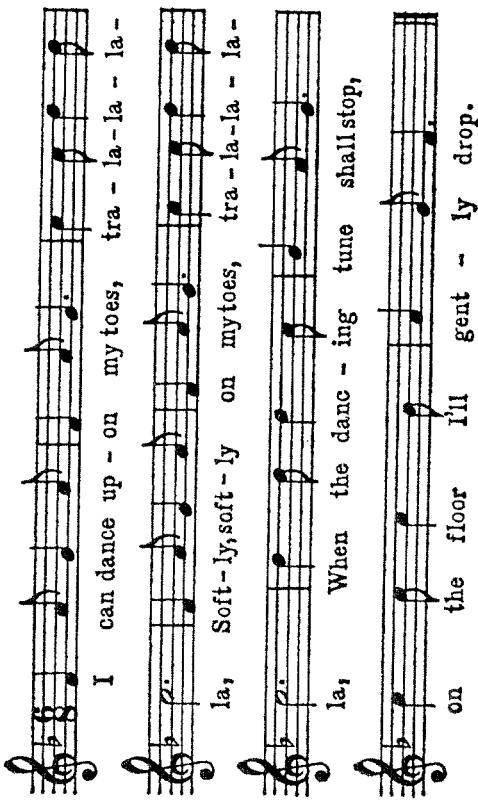

We are soldiers marching along,
Left right, left right,
Singing a song;
Hands by side,
Heads quite still,
Down the street and up the hill.

Children march round the room as the words suggest, on the last line lifting knees high as if going up a hill.

I can dance upon my toes,
Tra-la-la-la-la-la.
Softly, softly, on my toes,
Tra-la-la-la-la-la.
When the dancing tune shall stop,
On the floor I'll gently drop.

Dance as the words suggest, and flop on the floor on the last word.

My Wellington boots go thump, thump, thump.
Stamp feet loudly.
My leather shoes go pit-pat-pit.
Tread softly.
But my rubber sandals make no noise at all.
Tread silently.

I can dance upon my toes,
Tra-la-la-la-la-la.
Softly, softly, on my toes,
Tra-la-la-la-la-la.
When the dancing tune shall stop,
On the floor I'll gently drop.

Moppety-mop and poppety-pop
Went on their way with a skip and a hop;
One with a skip and one with a hop,
Moppety-mop and poppety-pop.

Children skip and hop round the room to the rhythm of the words.

One morning the little Indian boy woke up,
Put one finger up behind head to represent a feather. Stretch and yawn.
 Got out of bed,

And said to his mummy,

'Ooooooh, ooooh –
Waggle one finger in the mouth to make an Indian call.
 I'm going for a walk.'

He went down the garden path and shut the gate –
Slap knees.
 SLAM!

He went down the road till he came to a bridge.
Clap hands.

He walked across the bridge –
 Trip, trap –
 And he walked along the road till he came to a river.
Slap chest.

He looked up the river and down the river.
Look left and right.

There was no bridge so he swam –
Make swimming actions.
 Splish, splash.
 When he got to the other side he walked in the forest till he came to a great big tree.
Slap knees.

He looked round this side of the tree,
Look left and right.
 And he looked round that side of the tree,

But there was nothing there.

Then he heard a noise –

Tigers!

He ran through the forest –
Reverse all actions as fast as possible.
 He swam across the river –

He ran across the bridge –

He shut the gate . . . SLAM –

He ran in to his mother –

'Oooooh, ooooh,' he said,
 'I'm home.'

See the soldiers in the street,

Hear the marching of their feet;
 They are singing as they go,
 Marching, marching, to and fro.
 See the soldiers in the street,
 Hear the marching of their feet.

Children march round separately or in a long file.
Use the tune of 'Twinkle, twinkle little star'.

This is my book; it will open wide
To show the pictures that are inside.

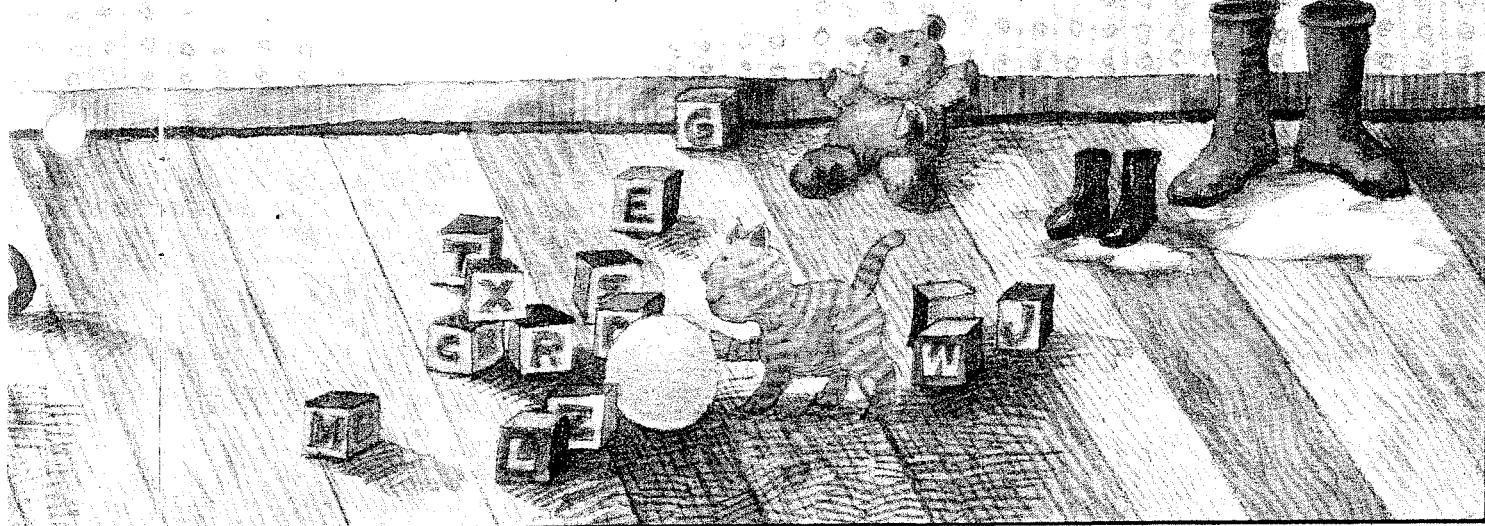

This is my ball, so big and round,
To toss in the air
Or roll on the ground.

When the raindrops fall
From the cloudy sky.

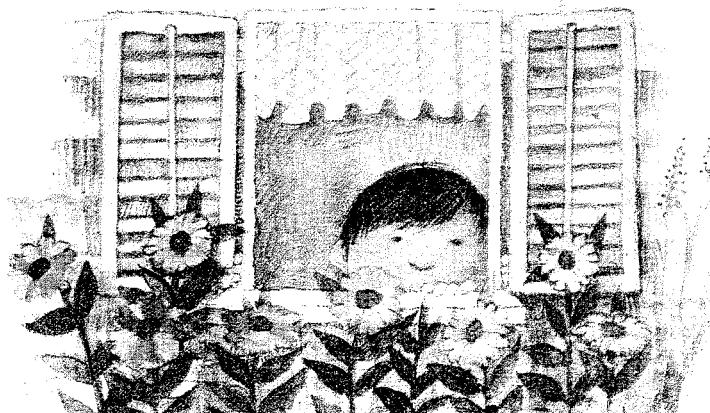

This is my kitty; just hear her purr
When I'm gently stroking her
Soft, warm fur.

You have a choice of two actions
according to what you're wearing.

1. If you're wearing blue today
Then stand up straight and tall.
If you're not wearing blue today
Then curl up very small.
Stand up tall or curl up small –
Which one will you do?

2. If you're wearing shoes today
Then softly tap your knees.
If you're not wearing shoes today
Then sneeze a noisy sneeze.
Tap your knees or sneeze a sneeze –
Which one will you do?

3. If you're wearing a pocket today
Then clap your hands up high.
If you're not wearing a pocket today
Then silently blink an eye.
Clap up high or blink an eye –
Which one will you do?

4. If you're wearing a smile today
Then slowly kneel down.
If you're not wearing a smile today
Then wear a grumpy frown.
Kneel down or frown a frown –
Which one will you do?

How it works

Someone chooses a colour, material, print, article of clothing or whatever. In the last 8 bars of the song everyone does one of the actions mentioned in that verse.

You can repeat any of the 4 verses as often as you like, changing the item of clothing each time.

Other ideas

Roll that brown jug

Traditional North American, adapted Barry Gibson

When you've sung these verses about rolling, riding and walking, make up more verses with other ways of getting something somewhere. How about whizz, heave or blow? And can you make the somethings have nice bright colours, like orange, purple or yellow?

Musical notation for 'Roll that brown jug' in G clef, 2/4 time. The melody consists of two lines of music. The first line starts with a half note F, followed by a quarter note C, another half note F, and a quarter note C. The second line starts with a half note F, followed by a quarter note C, another half note F, and a quarter note C. The notes are connected by vertical stems.

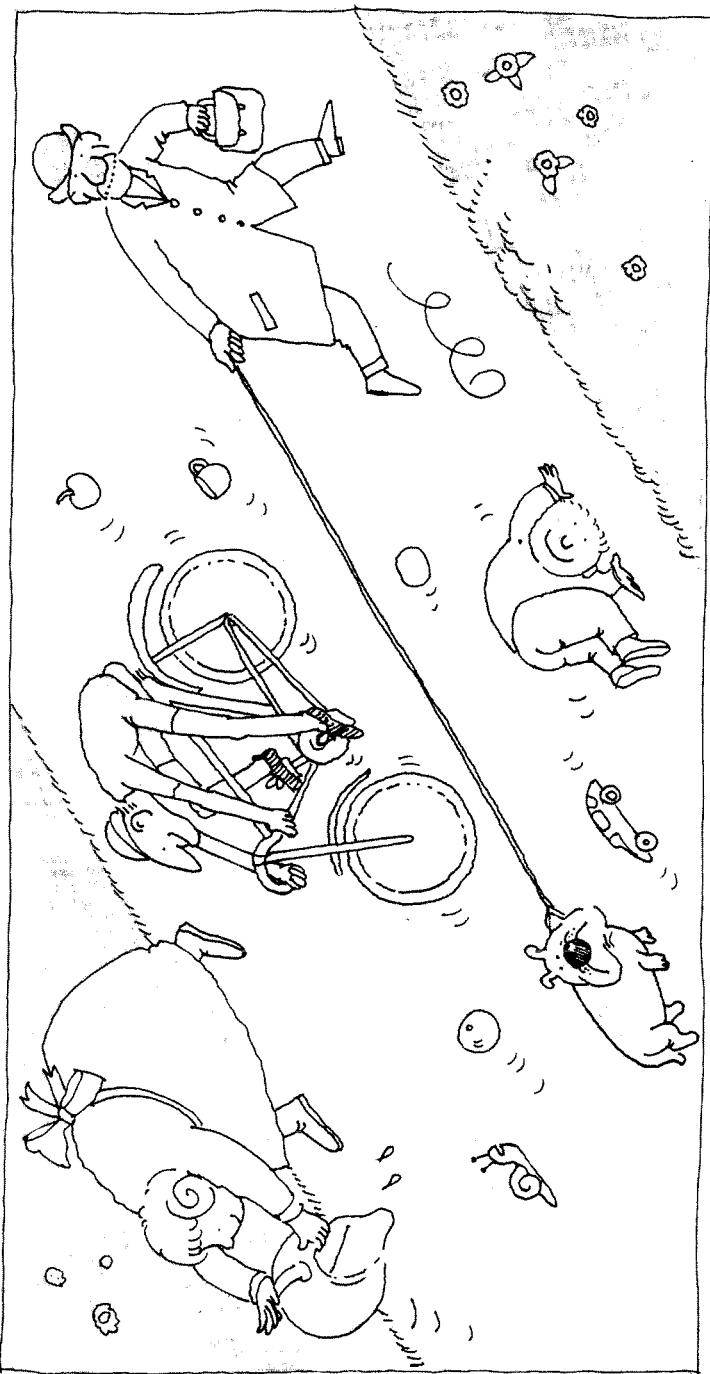

1 Roll that brown jug down to town, Roll that brown jug down to town,
So early in the morning.
2 Ride that red bike down to town
Ride that red bike down to town
Ride that red bike down to town
So early in the morning.
3 Walk that blue dog home again
