

Baa, baa, black sheep

Baa, baa, black sheep,
Have you any wool?
Yes, sir. Yes, sir.
Three bags full.
One for my master,
And one for my dame,
And one for the little boy
who lives down the lane.

Mary had a little lamb

Mary had a little lamb
Its fleece was white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamb was sure to go.

It followed her to school one day,
Which was against the rule.
It made the children laugh and play
To see a lamb at school.

Round and round the garden
Run your index finger round the baby's palm.
 Went the Teddy Bear,

One step,

Two steps,
'Jump' your finger up his arm.
 Tickly under there.
Tickle him under his arm.

Round and round the haystack,
 Went the little mouse,
 One step,
 Two steps,
 In his little house.

Repeat the same actions for the second verse.

This is the father short and stout,
 This is the mother with children all about.
 This is the brother tall you see,
 This is the sister with dolly on her knee.
 This is the baby sure to grow,
 And here is the family all in a row.

Point to each finger in turn, starting with the thumb.

Knock at the door,
Pretend to knock on the forehead.

Pull the bell,
Lightly pull a lock of hair.

Lift the latch,
Lightly pinch the nose.

And walk in.
Pretend to put your fingers on his mouth.

Use this as a feature play with a baby.

This little cow eats grass,
 This little cow eats hay;
 This little cow drinks water;
 This little cow runs away;
 This little cow does nothing
 But just lies down all day.

We'll chase her,
 We'll chase her,
 We'll chase her,
 We'll chase her away!

Point to each finger in turn, starting with the thumb.
Tickle the little finger and then up the baby's arm.

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake,
Baker's man,
Bake me a cake
As fast as you can.
Pat it and prick it
And mark it with B,
And put it in the oven
For Baby and me.

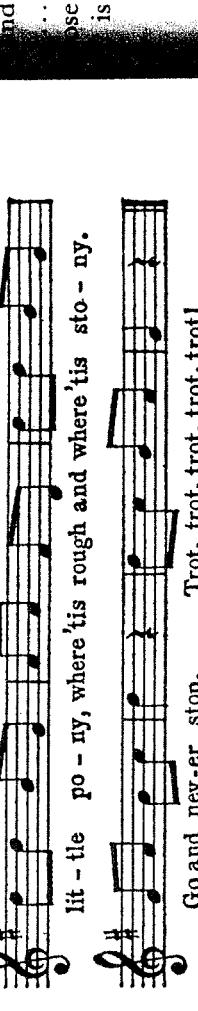

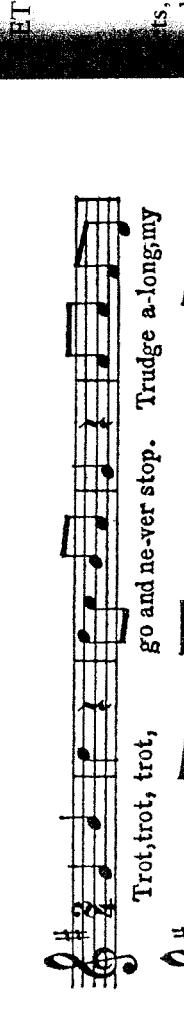

*Use this for a hand-clapping game with a baby.
Use the traditional tune.*

Ride a cock horse
To Banbury Cross,
To see a fine lady
Upon a white horse.
With rings on her fingers
And bells on her toes,
She shall have music
Wherever she goes.

*Use this for a knee ride for a baby.
Use the traditional tune.*

Trot, trot, trot,
Go and never stop.
Trudge along, my little pony,
Where 'tis rough and where 'tis stony.
Go and never stop,
Trot, trot, trot, trot!

Use this for a knee ride for a baby, making the bounces fit in with the rhythm of the rhyme.

Two little eyes to look around,
Two little ears to hear each sound;
One little nose to smell what's sweet,
One little mouth that likes to eat.

Point to each feature as it is mentioned.

I went to visit a farm one day;
 I saw a (cow) across the way,
 And what d'you think I heard it say?
 MOO, MOO, MOO.

Repeat using different animals.

I went to visit a farm one day;
 I saw a (cow) across the way,
 and what d'you think I heard it say? (MOO, MOO, MOO).

One man went to mow,
 Went to mow a meadow;
 One man and his dog, Bow-wow,
 Went to mow a meadow.

Two men went to mow, etc.

Three men, etc.

Four men, etc.

*This may be played as a finger counting game, or with children acting as the men.
Use the traditional tune.*

Five little monkeys walked along the shore;

One went a-sailing,

Then there were four.

Four little monkeys climbed up a tree;

One of them tumbled down,

Then there were three.

Three little monkeys found a pot of glue;
One got stuck in it,

Then there were two.

Two little monkeys found a currant bun;
One ran away with it,

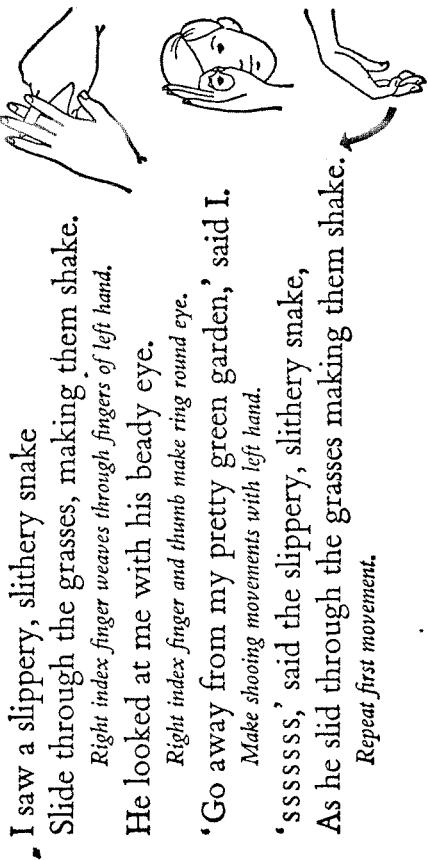

Then there was one.

One little monkey cried all afternoon,
So they put him in an aeroplane

And sent him to the moon.

Use fingers to indicate the number of monkeys.

I saw a slippery, slimy snake.
Slide through the grasses, making them shake.

Right index finger weaves through fingers of left hand.

He looked at me with his beady eye.

Right index finger and thumb make ring round eye.

'Go away from my pretty green garden,' said I.

Make shaking movements with left hand.

'SSSSSSS,' said the slippery, slimy snake,

As he slid through the grasses making them shake.

Repeat first movement.

An elephant goes like this and that.

Pat knees.

He's terrible big,

Hands up High.

And he's terrible fat,

Hands out wide.

He has no fingers,

Wriggle fingers.

And he has no toes,

Touch toes.

But goodness gracious, what a nose!

Make curling movement away from nose.

T
Let's see the monkeys climbing up a tree,
One, two, three, one, two, three.
Look, they're coming down again,
Isn't it fun?

Three, two, one, three, two, one.

Now we see the brown bears walk along the floor,
Two, three, four, two, three four.

Look out I see a tiger,

He might catch you!

Four, three, two, four, three, two.

*Move hands up and down for the monkeys and straight along for the bears.
Both hands are held up for the tiger, and after being pointed on the word 'you' are quickly hidden behind the back.*

An elephant goes like this and that.

Pat knees.

He's terrible big,

Hands up High.

And he's terrible fat,

Hands out wide.

He has no fingers,

Wriggle fingers.

And he has no toes,

Touch toes.

But goodness gracious, what a nose!

Make curling movement away from nose.

The elephant is big and strong;
His ears are large, his trunk is long.
He walks around with heavy tread,
His keeper walking at his head.

Walk round very slowly, swinging from side to side; head bent down and one arm hanging down as the trunk.

The el - e-phant is big and strong; his ears are large, his trunk is long. He walks a-round with heavy tread, his keep - er walk-ing at his head.

The musical notation consists of three staves of music. The first staff is in common time (4/4), the second in 2/4, and the third in 3/4. Each staff features a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notes are primarily eighth notes, with some sixteenth notes and rests. The lyrics are integrated directly into the musical lines.

A mouse lived in a little hole,
One hand curled inside the other.
 Lived softly in a little hole.

When all was quiet as quiet can be (Sh! Sh!),
Said very softly.
 Out popped HE!
Right hand jumps out of left.

Creep, little mouse, come along to me,
Creep fingers along the floor.

Creep, little mouse, I've a cake for tea.

Puss, Puss, Puss, where is little mouse?
Walk along the floor on all fours looking everywhere.
 Safe, safe, safe, in his little house!
Sit on the floor again, one fist lightly clenched to make a house' for the index finger.

One, two, three, four, One, two, three, four,

These little pussy cats came to my door.

Hold up the four fingers of right hand and count them.
 They just stood there and said 'Good day,'
Make the fingers bow on 'Good day.'
 And then they tiptoed right away.
Walk the fingers away over the front of the body and behind the left shoulder.

If I were a little bird, high up in the sky,
 This is how I'd flap my wings and fly, fly, fly.

If I were a friendly dog, going for a run,
 This is how I'd wag my tail when having fun.

If I were a cat I'd sit by the fireplace,
 This is how I'd use my paws to wash my face.

If I were a rabbit small, in the woods I'd roam,
 This is how I'd dig a burrow for my home.

If I were an elephant, very big and strong,
 This is how I'd wave my trunk and walk along.

If I were a kangaroo, I would leap and bound,
 This is how I'd jump about and hop around.

If I were a camel tall, slowly I would stride,
 This is how I'd rock and sway from side to side.

If I were a tall giraffe, living in the Zoo,
 This is how I'd bend my neck and look at you.

Mime the actions suggested by the words.

Incy Wincy Spider climbed up the water spout,
Use the fingers of both hands to represent a spider climbing up.
 Down came the rain drops and washed poor Incy out;
Raise the hands and lower them slowly, wriggling fingers to indicate rain.
 Out came the sunshine and dried up all the rain,
Raise hands above the head together and bring them out and down.
 And Incy Wincy Spider climbed up that spout again.
As first line.

My pigeon house I open wide
 And I set all my pigeons free.
 They fly around on every side
 And perch on the highest tree.
 And when they return
 From their merry flight,
 They close their eyes
 And say, 'Good night.'

Coo-oo Coo, Coo-oo Coo,
 Coo-oo Coo, Coo-oo Coo,
 Coo-oo Coo, Coo-oo Coo, Coo-oo.

This may be played as a game with a ring of children as the pigeon house with two or three acting as the pigeons, or by each child miming the actions suggested by the words.

 Now make the owl blink his eyes.
 Now make the owl blink his eyes.

This song incorporates the sound each animal makes, and a characteristic action.

1. Can you bark like a dog?

Can you bark like a dog?

Can you bark like a dog?

Now make the dog wag his tail.

Now make the dog wag his tail.

2. Can you meow like a cat?

3. Can you hoot like an owl?

Can you hoot like an owl?

Can you hoot like an owl?

Now make the owl blink his eyes.

Now make the owl blink his eyes.

Can you bark like a dog?

How it works

Sing the song, making the appropriate noises in bars 2, 4 and 6. Use the last 4 bars to mime whichever action you have chosen.

Other ideas

Use percussion instruments to make the animal sounds. Indian bells can be a mouse squeaking; a guiro can be a frog croaking; a drum can represent an elephant's plop.

You will need

Percussion instruments to match the animals (if you like).

How it works

This is a song to sing. There's a little solo at the end if anyone wants to be Mum or Dad.

Other ideas

Use a different animal in each verse.

An elephant's too big,
an ant is too small,
a zebra too stripy,
a dinosaur too old etc.

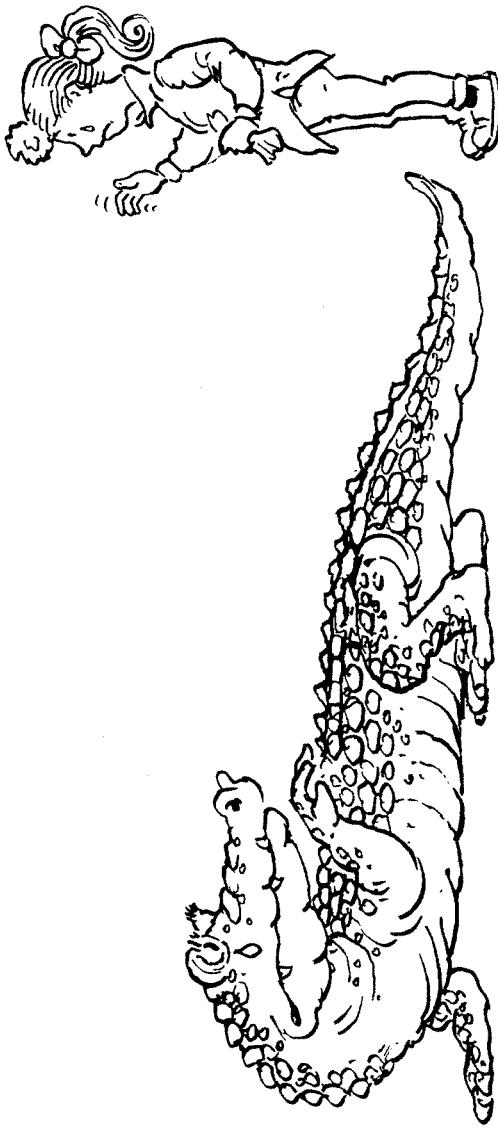

Choose an instrument to illustrate each animal (e.g. castanets for a crocodile, drum for an elephant, Indian bells for an ant etc). After you've sung the song, repeat the accompaniment of the last 4 bars and add percussion.

Try again

Words and Music: Sandra Kerr

Chorus:

So I'll imitate the spider in the corner,
If at first I don't succeed I'll try again.
Though the way is very long,
I will say, when things go wrong,
If I try I'm bound to get there in the end.

2 Think about the salmon from the ocean:
They must swim against the tide and stand the test,
Leaping rocks and water falls,
Through streams and icy pools,
Till, in gentle rivers, they can take their rest.

Chorus

3 Remember too, the swallows in the sunshine:
Halfway round the world they have to fly,
Blown by stormy winds and rain,
But they'll do it all again,
To soar into a blue and summer sky.

Chorus

Music: Traditional Austrian

- When I was a hedgehog, a hedgehog, a hedgehog,
When I was a hedgehog, a hedgehog was I.
It was this way, and that way,
And this way, and that way,
When I was a hedgehog, a hedgehog was I.

This well-known tune makes a good circus dance. Dance to the left for one verse, right for the next, and so on. On every 'this way' and 'that way' stay where you are and mime the silliest actions you can think of for each animal.

The Caterpillar

A caterpillar crawled to the top of a tree.

"I think I'll take a nap," said he.

So—under a leaf he began to creep

To spin a cocoon;

Then he fell asleep.

All winter he slept in his cocoon bed,

Till Spring came along one day and said,

"Wake up, wake up, little sleepyhead.

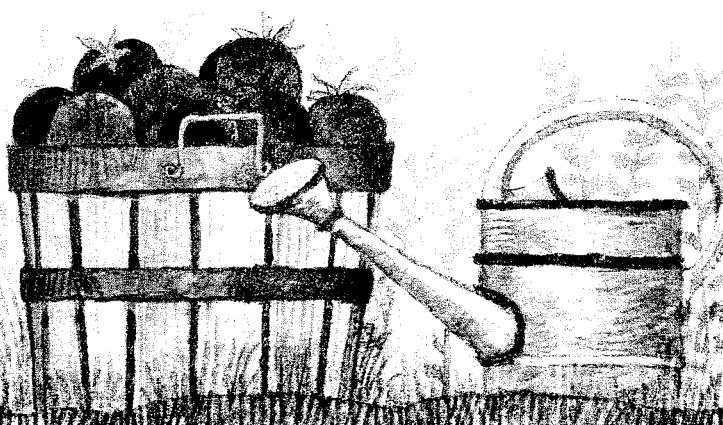

Wake up, it's time to get out of bed."

So—he opened his eyes that sunshiny day.

Lo! He was a butterfly—and flew away!

Two Little Monkeys

One fell out and hurt his head.

The other called the doctor,

And the doctor said,

“That is what you get for fighting in bed.”

Here Is the Beehive

Here is the beehive. Where are the bees?

Hidden away where nobody sees.

Watch and you'll see them come out of the hive,

Little Bunny

There was a little bunny who lived in the wood.

He wiggled his ears as a good bunny should.

He hopped by a squirrel.

He wiggled by a tree.

He hopped by a duck.

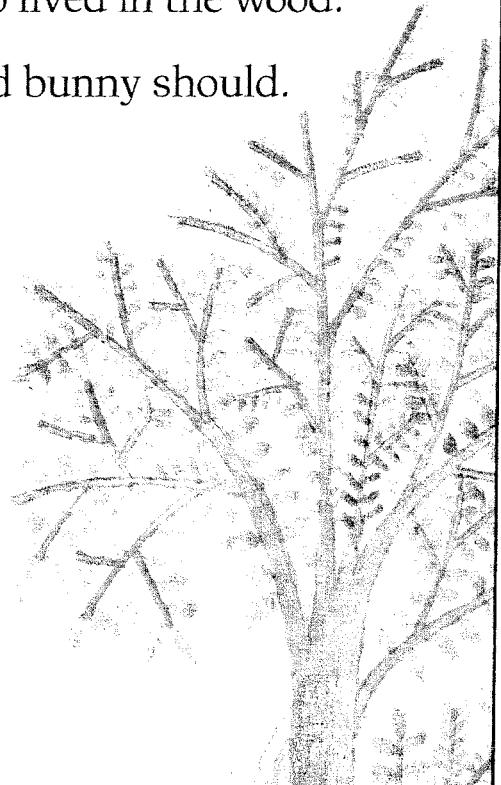

And he wiggled by me.

He stared at the squirrel.

He peeked round the tree.

He stared at the duck.

But he winked at me!

All he could do was, "Quack! Quack! Quack!"

Down to the river they would go,

All he could do was, "Quack! Quack! Quack!"

Four little kittens,

One saw a mouse.
Then there were two.

Two little kittens

One little kitten

To drink a dish of milk.

Creeping

Creeping, creeping, creeping,
Comes the little cat.
But bunny with his long ears
Hops like that!

Up from the river they would come.

Ho, ho, ho, ho, hum, hum, hum.
